

AWOYEMI OLAMIDE TIMILEHIN

12902, Leeds Court, Tampa Fl, 33612

olamideawoyemi2016@usf.edu

(813) 619-2916

PROFILE

I am an anthropologist, with four years of experience conducting research and ethnographic fieldwork in various historical centers of Nigeria, such as Ibadan and Oyo town. I own a great skill in research and I am currently leveraging on this skill in my work on gender and identity construction in the Nigerian society. During my course of university study, I have been able to acquire knowledge and own skills in ethnography, research, human and cultural diversity and effective communication.

EDUCATION

2017-2021 B.A. Anthropology, University of Ibadan, Ibadan, Nigeria.

HONORS AND AWARDS

2022 Winner, Award for Academic Excellence, District Convocation.

2019 First runner up, Award for Academic Excellence, Department of Archaeology and Anthropology.

2018 First runner up, Award for Academic Excellence, Faculty of Arts.

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Identity studies, Anthropology of Gender, Applied Anthropology and Cultural Anthropology.

UNDERGRADUATE THESIS

Encountering the LGBT Community in the University of Ibadan.

FIELD EXPERIENCES

- 2021 Field assistant to Prof. Ajala, Ethnographer, and Social Networking in Agbowo community, Ibadan, Field School, Archaeology and Anthropology Department, University of Ibadan.
- 2021 Research assistant to Jumoke Adepoju, Researcher, Effects of the COVID-19 Pandemic on Diabetes Mellitus Patients in University of Ibadan, College Hospital.
- 2020 Field Researcher, African Rural Intervention Initiative, Non Governmental Organization, Perception of Community on Development of Resource Centre.
- 2019 Field assistant to Mr Akinsete, Ethnographer, The Significance of Egungun Traditional Worship in Oyo town, Field school, Archaeology and Anthropology department, University of Ibadan.
- 2019 Research assistant to Dr Olayiwola Bukola, Ethnographer, Microfinancialization and women in South West Nigeria.
- 2018 Field assistant, Prof. Ajala, Ethnographer, The Role of Ifa Worship in the Development of Oyo Community, Field School, Archaeology and Anthropology department, University of Ibadan.

CONFERENCES ATTENDED

- 2021 Department of Archaeology and Anthropology 50th anniversary conference 'Archaeology, Anthropology and National Development', University of Ibadan, Nigeria (21st-23rd September 2021).
- 2021 The faculty of Arts International graduates conference, University of Ibadan, Nigeria (7th-9th June 2021).
- 2021 DAAD Alumni Inter-disciplinary conference 'Falling Apart-Inclusion As Intervention into the Nigerian Experience' Initiative for Information, Arts and Culture Development, Jericho Ibadan (7th-10th December 2021).
- 2020 Alexander Von Humboldt Kollege Conference 'Indigenous Epistemologies, Strengthening Research and Decolonization of Education in Nigeria' University of Ibadan (11th-14th February 2020).

ACADEMIC PAPER

2021 Awoyemi Olamide, 'Encountering the LGBT Community in the University of Ibadan (Paper Presentation), 50th anniversary conference of the Department of Archaeology and Anthropology, University of Ibadan, Ibadan (22nd September 2021).

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT/TRAINING

2020 Certificate of Achievement, Jobberman Soft-Skills Training.

2020 Certificate of Completion, Google Fundamentals of Digital Marketing.

VOLUNTEERING EXPERIENCE

2021 Volunteer, OSB Love Foundation's 1000 Smiles for Christmas Project.

2020 Volunteer, Friends of Damien Tuberculosis Drive.

2020 Volunteer, African Rural Intervention Initiative, Development of Resource Centre in Ilora Oyo Town. Participated hands on in the development process of a resource centre for secondary school students.

2019 Till date: Member, Young African Leaders Initiative (YALI) Network.

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS SET

- Ethnography
- Interviews
- Effective communication
- Creative writing
- Microsoft word
- Microsoft excel
- Basic graphic designing
- Social media management

LANGUAGES

English Language, Yoruba Language

REFERENCE

Dr Ololajulo Babajide PhD, Department of Archaeology and Anthropology, University of Ibadan, Nigeria (babjid@yahoo.com)
+234818-789-7476, +23703-429-2290