

College of Arts and Sciences
Department of Humanities and Cultural Studies

FIL 4308 / HUM 6588

Documentary & Experimental Cinema

Summer B: T / R 5 - 8:30 pm

Dr. Amy Rust

This course explores major movements in international documentary and experimental film and video production, including cinéma vérité, social realism, and ethnographic filmmaking as well as the American underground, mockumentary, and the autobiographical essay. Final projects include a traditional paper or a short video project.

Undergraduate and graduate students may enroll.