

World Languages & Cultures Major

French & Francophone Studies Concentration

This concentration offers solid academic and practical training in the language, literature, and culture of France and the French-speaking world in an engaged, full immersion environment. Students have the opportunity to attain an advanced level of French with regard to comprehension, reading, writing, and speaking. Successful students become conversant in many of the major issues, past and present, relating to French and Francophone cultures, literatures, and civilizations. French graduates are attractive to employers in numerous fields, in addition to graduate and professional schools. USF alumni in French may be found in such professions as education, business, foreign service, politics, law, and health.
