

TURN THE TABLES THIS SPRING AT USF

Join the Bellini Center this April for our inaugural reverse career and networking event where you, the employer, visit students at their tables, not the other way around.

What is it

Traditional college career fairs yield a high volume of time spent with potentially minimal outcomes. Turn the Tables puts a new spin on a conventional career fair creating a networking event structured to maximize your time with a select group of top USF talent, who are ready for the next step in their career.

How it works

A select group of undergraduate business students will showcase their skills, expertise and brand stories as representatives rotate among them pitching themselves, their company and current career opportunities.
