Why Study Finance at USF?

Broad Business Background

USF is a CFA-affiliated university that offers a broad-based, analytical program, providing a solid business background for students seeking careers in corporate finance, banking, investments, financial services, insurance, or real estate.

Career Prospects

USF finance students find internships and full-time jobs at prestigious institutions such as Bank of America, Citi, Goldman Sachs, JPMorganChase, MetLife, Morgan Stanley, Raymond James Financial, T. Rowe Price, and more.

In the classroom, students prepare with hands on training in our Bloomberg labs, a powerful resource providing real-time data from markets around the world, in addition to news, research, and powerful analytics used by top decision-makers in finance, business, and government.

Finance Concentrations and Minor Programs

Concentrations: This degree offers concentrations in investment analysis, fintech, corporate finance, and real estate.

Minors: Business students can choose to minor in finance. There is also a minor in real estate for business or non-business students.

What sets the Muma College of Business apart?

Power-skills certified. Hard skills can get you hired, but you'll need strong skills in communications, time management and building relationships to lead. USF's Bellini Center for Talent Development integrates employer-led workshops into your core business courses, so you can graduate with a certificate in these skills. To learn more, visit usf.to/BusinessTalent.

Find your people. Enjoy the advantages of a large university, while belonging to your own tight-knit community within the college through student organizations and special programs for business students.

- Freshmen starting in the fall become a part of the Bulls Business Network with early admission to the business college with special registration and advising opportunities. These students may also join one of our living-learning residence hall programs, the Bulls Business Community or the Zimmerman Advertising Program. All Zimmerman Advertising Program students study abroad and have the opportunity to earn a master's degree with one additional year. Visit usf.to/bbn for additional details.
- USF is home to the state's first and only Business Honors Program, affiliated with the Judy Genshaft Honors College, which blends rigorous coursework and research activities with special residential, service, international and applied learning activities. Participants live on either the St. Petersburg or Tampa campus for one year and must meet additional admission requirements upon entering as a freshman. Learn more at usf.to/bhp.
- The Corporate Mentor Program, based on the Tampa campus, pairs first-generation college students with a mentor who shares tips and guidance for a smooth transition from student to professional life. Students meet monthly with a management-level professional for first-hand insight into the corporate world, and become eligible for over $100,000 in scholarships awarded each year. Visit usf.to/cmp for more information.
