Why Study Hospitality Management at USF?

Real-World Experience

Students in the hospitality and tourism program go beyond the classroom, learning from expert faculty and partners, including McKibbin Hospitality, Tampa Convention Center, Visit Tampa Bay, and Marriott. The program helps students find internships and hosts career expos and community events, preparing leaders for roles in resorts, destinations, event management, tour operations, theme parks, restaurants, and social media marketing companies.

Location

It's no secret that Florida is a tourist destination, and that means the state has to be ready to host, serve, lead and welcome visitors in innovative and well-organized ways. USF's three campus locations near Florida's Gulf Coast, beach resorts, theme parks and countless dining experiences provide the perfect classrooms outside the classroom.

Scholarships

Over the past several years, the USF Muma College of Business has awarded more than a $1 million in scholarships annually. In addition, several scholarships are awarded specifically to USF students studying hospitality.

What sets the Muma College of Business apart?

Power-skills certified. Hard skills can get you hired, but you'll need strong skills in communications, time management and building relationships to lead. USF's Bellini Center for Talent Development integrates employer-led workshops into your core business courses, so you can graduate with a certificate in these skills. To learn more, visit usf.to/BusinessTalent.

Find your people. Enjoy the advantages of a large university, while belonging to your own tight-knit community within the college through student organizations and special programs for business students.

- Freshmen starting in the fall become a part of the Bulls Business Network with early admission to the business college with special registration and advising opportunities. These students may also join one of our living-learning residence hall programs, the Bulls Business Community or the Zimmerman Advertising Program. All Zimmerman Advertising Program students study abroad and have the opportunity to earn a master's degree with one additional year. Visit usf.to/bbn for additional details.
- USF is home to the state's first and only Business Honors Program, affiliated with the Judy Genshaft Honors College, which blends rigorous coursework and research activities with special residential, service, international and applied learning activities. Participants live on either the St. Petersburg or Tampa campus for one year and must meet additional admission requirements upon entering as a freshman. Learn more at usf.to/bhp.
- The Corporate Mentor Program, based on the Tampa campus, pairs first-generation college students with a mentor who shares tips and guidance for a smooth transition from student to professional life. Students meet monthly with a management-level professional for first-hand insight into the corporate world, and become eligible for over $100,000 in scholarships awarded each year. Visit usf.to/cmp for more information.
