What sets the Muma College of Business apart?

Power-skills certified. Hard skills can get you hired, but you'll need strong skills in communications, time management and building relationships to lead. USF's Bellini Center for Talent Development integrates employer-led workshops into your core business courses, so you can graduate with a certificate in these skills. To learn more, visit usf.to/BusinessTalent.

Find your people. Enjoy the advantages of a large university, while belonging to your own tight-knit community within the college through student organizations and special programs for business students.

- Freshmen starting in the fall become a part of the Bulls Business Network with early admission to the business college with special registration and advising opportunities. These students may also join our living-learning residence hall program, the Bulls Business Community. Visit usf.to/bbn for additional details.
- USF is home to the state's first and only Business Honors Program, affiliated with the Judy Genshaft Honors College, which blends rigorous coursework and research activities with special residential, service, international and applied learning activities. Participants live on either the St. Petersburg or Tampa campus for one year and must meet additional admission requirements upon entering as a freshman. Learn more at usf.to/bhp.
- The Corporate Mentor Program, based on the Tampa campus, pairs first-generation college students with a mentor who shares tips and guidance for a smooth transition from student to professional life. Students meet monthly with a management-level professional for first-hand insight into the corporate world, and become eligible for over $100,000 in scholarships awarded each year. Visit usf.to/cmp for more information.
