

Camryn J. Lee
University of South Florida
Criminology Department SOC 343
Email: Camrynlee@usf.edu

Education

M.A. | MAY 2021 | UNIVERSITY OF CINCINNATI, CINCINNATI, OH

- Major: Criminal Justice GPA 3.94

B.A. | DECEMBER 2019 | UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY, LEXINGTON KY

- Major: Psychology/Minor Criminology GPA 3.89

Work Experience

UNITED STATES PROBATION OFFICER NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS: CHICAGO

- Recommend sentencing options under the federal sentencing guidelines.
- Address the offense's impact on the victim and the offender's ability to pay fines & restitution.
- Recommend release conditions for the court to impose to help structure the offender's movement and behavior in the community.
- Conduct investigations and prepare reports for the United States District Court and the Federal Prison System, which include background and activities of offenders.
- Conduct investigations and prepare reports for the court with recommendations, which requires interviewing defendants, person(s) under supervision, and their families, and collecting background data from various sources.

U.S. PRETRIAL SERVICES OFFICER- DISTRICT OF OREGON: PORTLAND

- Conducting interviews with defendants to collect background information including family, education, employment, finances, physical and mental health, and alcohol or drug abuse
- Recommend release conditions for the court to impose for defendant's release to supervision.
- Managed a caseload of defendants on pretrial supervision to ensure that their release conditions are being followed and they do not pose a risk of danger to the community or a risk of flight.
- Direct clients to services to help them – such as substance abuse or mental health treatment, medical care, training, or employment assistance – as ordered by the court.