Captain, OUPV, Sea School graduate September 7, 2011; Merchant Mariner Credential issued by the United States Coast Guard Maritime Center, November 2011.

FACULTY GOVERNANCE AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPERIENCE

Faculty Senator. I was elected and served a three-year term as a CAS Representative to the Faculty Senate, 1999-2002. I was appointed by the Faculty Senate President to serve as a member of the Faculty Senate Search Committee for the USF President, 1999-2000. I served a fourth year (2002-2003) acting as a substitute member for a faculty member who was on medical leave.

Faculty Member of the University Leadership Team, 1997-2001. I was recommended by the Faculty Senate and appointed by President Betty Castor in October 1997 to serve as one of two faculty representatives to the University's Leadership Team. The leadership team led by the President was composed of upper management leaders, including vice presidents, deans, and regional CEO's. The council typically met monthly to discuss major issues facing the university and to develop policy and strategies consistent with USF's emerging profile as a Research 1 University. During my four-year appointment as faculty representative, I served under four presidents (Betty Castor, Richard Peck, Tom Tighe, and Judy Genshaft) and three provosts (Michael Kovacs, Tom Tighe, and David Stamps).

Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs and Program Development, College of Arts and Sciences (CAS), August 2001-June 2003. This Associate Dean is considered the Executive Associate Dean or the second-in-command in CAS. When the Dean was away from campus, I served as the Acting Dean. I handled all matters pertaining to the College's 500 tenured, tenure-earning, instructor, and visiting faculty. The responsibility for this position included determining the allocation of new faculty positions for departments, faculty recruitment and hiring. These matters included deciding which departments get new positions, recruitment and hiring (including issues related to diversity of faculty), tenure and promotion, mid-tenure review, faculty development, mentoring, faculty governance, grievances, disciplinary matters, sabbaticals and leaves, and honors and awards, including emeritus distinction.

Interim Dean, College of Arts and Sciences (CAS), July 2003-February 2005. In my capacity of Interim Dean, I was responsible for all operations of the college. CAS has 27 academic departments (in social and behavioral sciences, life and physical sciences, the humanities, and professional schools) and 16 centers and institutes. CAS has over 17,000 majors enrolled in 65 majors or concentrations, 36 master's programs, and 14 doctoral programs. The College has an operating budget of over $50 million and employs approximately 500 faculty and 150 staff. During my tenure as Interim Dean, I had overall responsibility for budget allocations for fiscal years 2003/04 and 2004/05.

TELEVISED EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

I created the following 30 educational programs, introduced each program, and typically served as the panel moderator and content advisor for these programs to the Tampa Educational Cable Consortium. These programs typically included esteemed members of the professional community in the Tampa Bay area and the State of Florida. The televised conferences, for example, featured participation by Governor Lawton Chiles, more than 20 judges, including the Chief Judge of the 13th Judicial Circuit (Hillsborough County) and the Chief Justice of the Florida Supreme Court, the State Attorney and the Public Defender in Hillsborough County, State Senators, the SWAT team, and many highly-respected prosecutors, defense lawyers, private attorneys, law enforcement officers, and social services and juvenile justice personnel. A complete listing of participants in each of the 30 programs is available on my CV Addendum.

Introductions of the distinguished guests were often done by USF Presidents, including Frank Borkowski, Betty Castor, and Judy Genshaft. Topics focused on “the hot issues” at the time and often involved value-laden issues. Special programs highlighted diversity in the criminal justice system and areas of concern to men and women.

Kathleen M. Heide, Ph.D./Abbreviated CV

Each of these programs was filmed in my class, Crime and Justice in America, before an audience of 300-400 USF students and broadcast to thousands of viewers more than a dozen times on four cable networks: Jones Intercable, Paragon Cable, Cablevision Industries, and Telesat Cablevision. "Crime and Justice in America" was selected from 160 entries to receive the 1995 Southern Sunshine Video Festival Award in the Documentary category. The selection was made by judges after reviewing three of my programs produced during the 1994-1995 academic year. The first 28 programs were produced when I taught the class for several year period (1988-1995). The remaining two were filmed when I taught this class again during the academic year 2000-2001.
