Other Scholarly Work

2019-Present Social Work Interdisciplinary Research Lab \(SWIRL\) for Promotion of Mental Health and Prevention of Gender-Based Violence in Global Settings

Role: Director (2023-Present)
Co-Director (2019-2022)

Impact: Fostering inter-professional collaboration with colleagues from Public Health and providing interdisciplinary training to students from social work and public health, with the objective of cultivating collaborative practice for providing patient-centered care. Since beginning in November 2019, we have submitted publications, and mentored undergraduate and graduate students to participate in professional conferences. We have received funding from the Florida Education Fund to support Lab students' research projects. Also, the Lab is listed in a HRSA Training grant (Center of Excellence in MCH) as one of the choices for MCH students/faculty interdisciplinary projects.
