Empowering Teachers: Using Open Access and AI Research Methods to Inform Classroom Practice

Susan Ariew

Librarian

University of South Florida

Evan Fruehauf

Assistant Librarian

University of South Florida

This online workshop will equip teachers with research resources to answer questions of practice, from best pedagogical strategies to addressing classroom challenges. Participants will learn about information privilege, legal ways to access open research, and search strategies for finding quality, peer-reviewed resources. Presenters Evan Fruehauf and Susan Ariew will also introduce AI tools and browser extensions to streamline research. A curated guide to open research platforms will be provided to help teachers navigate and apply valuable insights to their work.
