

STEVE PANN

MEMBER, BOARD OF ADVISORS

Steve Pann is a Managing Partner at Razor's Edge Ventures. He has over thirty years of experience in disruptive technology development in support of demanding Government missions. In the last several years, his portfolio of companies has yielded over $2 billion in shareholder returns in national security-related companies. He focuses on investments in technology-enabled growth stage businesses in autonomy, robotics, ocean and undersea platforms, cyber and electronic warfare, solid rocket motor production, military operationally responsive space, and intelligence surveillance and reconnaissance (ISR) systems.

Before founding Razor's Edge with his partners, Steve co-founded and served as Chief Strategy Officer at Blackbird Technologies (acquired by Raytheon), a Cyber and SOF operationally focused company. During his tenure at Blackbird, Pann co-founded RavenWing (acquired by Boeing), a mobile communications company. At Raytheon he was a founding member of the Advanced Concepts and Technology group.

Before joining the private sector, Pann served with the CIA for 18 years, developing and deploying advanced technologies in support of critical national security missions. Prior to civilian government service, Steve was a Marine Corps infantry officer. He earned a bachelor's degree from American University.
