WELCOME HOME

For most students, the transition to college life at the University of South Florida starts with the residential experience. By living on campus, you will benefit from a welcoming community, highly trained staff, and a residential curriculum designed to enrich your experience and further support your academic success. With multiple room styles to choose from on campus, we have plenty of options for our increasingly diverse residential population. Explore what we have in store for you!

Find out more about the application process and room selection timeline!

If living on campus is a priority for you, apply before the April 7 priority deadline and complete the steps to living on campus so you can be eligible to participate in the room selection process in April. You do not need to commit to the university to apply for housing. However, if you decide not to attend USF, it will be your responsibility to cancel your housing contract before the cancellation deadline to avoid charges. View the cancellation deadlines in the housing contract.

THE
ON-CAMPUS
EXPERIENCE

Campus Involvement

The Residence Hall Association (RHA) represents and assists our campus residents. RHA organizes large-scale programs to unite our many communities, serves as a governing body for the campus residents, and works to represent the residents by advocating for their needs. Residents involved with RHA gain leadership experience that will serve them for the rest of their lives. Speaking of leadership, the National Residence Hall Honorary (NRHH) is the premier leadership-based honor society comprised of the top 1% of student leaders residing on campus. NRHH members volunteer with charities and organizations throughout the year. These unique opportunities further strengthen a sense of service and commitment to leadership in the NRHH organization.

Supportive Environment

All residents will have a Resident Assistant (RA) or a Community Manager (CM). The RA/CM is a student para-professional staff member knowledgeable in campus resources, trained in conflict resolution, multicultural awareness, community building, crisis response, and more. Think of the RA/CM as a guide! They are a starting place for all questions USF Housing and beyond.

Residential Curriculum

The learning process continues beyond the classroom walls when you live on campus. Everything we do is guided by a residential curriculum. This means established learning goals are at the forefront of our interactions with residents. Our team utilizes a sequenced learning approach that brings resources to each student when needed. This approach eases the transition process and helps students succeed by anticipating needs before they are recognized.

LIVING LEARNING COMMUNITIES

Living Learning Communities (LLCs) are residential communities with a focus on an academic major or special interest. When you live in an LLC, you get to connect with other Bulls who share similar majors and interests, engage with faculty and staff right in your hall, and enjoy experiences designed just for you.

811 TOTAL LLC STUDENTS

18 DIFFERENT COUNTRIES

41 DIFFERENT STATES

102 ACADEMIC MAJORS / DISCIPLINES

Career Readiness
LLC students engage with faculty, staff and members of the community around topics that support career readiness.

Events
Numerous co-curricular student centered events are held among all LLCs during the academic year.

In-Hall Advising & Tutoring
LLC students engage with Academic Advisors and/or tutoring services within the halls through their respective LLC.
